

Welcome to the shop.

When we created 123zero, we found ourselves at a crossroads. How to preserve the advantages of existing shampoo forms in a creative and efficient way while also overcome their limits? We dared to step outside of conventional frames and designed a new cosmetic product in a half-solid, marble shape.

Join the aware and responsible community and decrease the usage of single use packaging. Use hair and body marbles that are nourishing without leaving a trace in the environment.
