

TRAIN: high Throughput screening and big data Analysis for innovation

TRAIN is an INTERREG project focused on big data and disease models, which fosters cross border cooperation between scientists and industry in the biomedical field. The Workshop will present three focal research areas which represent great opportunities for industry application to improve both diagnosis and disease therapy.

PROJECT PARTNERS

International Centre for Genetic Engineering and Biotechnology

Institut "Jožef Stefan"
Ljubljana, Slovenija

biovalley
investments

TECHNOLOGY PARK LJUBLJANA
01

AGENDA

→ Serena Zacchigna

-ICGEB-

Introduction to project TRAIN

→ Matteo del Ferro

-ASUITS-

Hearts in a dish: where cardiology meets molecular biology and tissue engineering

→ Edoardo Schneider

-ICGEB-

High content RNAi functional screening: from large libraries to functional hits

→ Anamarija Zega

-University of Lubiana-

High throughput screening in drug discovery